

Transport/EMS Rotation

Patient Care:

1. Active participation in the evaluation and management of the transported patient:
 - a. Respiratory distress/ failure
 - b. Shock
 - c. Cardiopulmonary failure
 - d. Cardiopulmonary arrest
2. Demonstrate the ability of accurately assess clinical status and apply the assessment to appropriate triage
3. Demonstrate the ability to evaluate and manage intoxicated patients with both common and complex problems
4. Demonstrate the ability to gather and assimilate accurate information including history and physical exam
5. Perform medical procedures as appropriately indicated

Medical Knowledge:

1. Demonstrate understanding of evidence-based pathology of the intoxicated patient presenting to an emergency/urgent care facility
2. Pursue continuing medical education of self and peers by effectively accessing medical information

Practice Based Learning:

1. Pursue continuing education through examination of peer review publications, articles and transition new knowledge to patient care
2. Contribute to divisional and departmental conferences including regular attendance and completion of assignments
3. Participate in the education of medical students and residents
4. Incorporate feedback into self-improvement

Interpersonal and Communication Skills:

1. Demonstrates effective interpersonal skills as it applies to effective and quality patient care
2. Create therapeutic and ethically sound relationships with patient/ families
3. Demonstrate leadership within the health care team
4. Maintain quality and complete medical records

Professionalism:

1. Demonstrates a commitment to professional responsibilities
2. Demonstrate all of the following:
 - a. Honesty, integrity and compassion
 - b. Sensitivity to age, gender, ethnicity, culture and disabilities
3. Respect patient privacy and confidentiality
4. Demonstrate respect for peers
5. Participate actively in divisional activities including conferences, peer review, quality improvement processes & education of residents/ medical students

Systems Based Practice:

1. Advocate for quality patient care by assisting families in dealing with system complexity
2. Become knowledgeable of hospital resources and restrictions and how it affects patient care
3. Escalate care whenever appropriate
4. Participate in the health care team and respect the concerns of other professionals
5. Maintain appropriate medical records and avoid ambiguous abbreviations
6. Acknowledge and respond appropriately to patient safety concerns