

FROM DRAFT TO PUBLISHED MANUSCRIPT

Manuscript Writing Foundations - Get Started Today

Curriculum includes four major thematic sections loaded with essential information presented in self-paced, online modules. Key milestones in the manuscript writing and publication process are included.

Each module includes a description, expected learning outcomes and practical, optional resources for continued learning. You may complete the modules independently, according to your current writing stage. Downloadable templates, writing checklists, and sample manuscript structures are included.

Section 1: Getting Started

Section 2: Understanding Authorship

Section 3: Writing Your Manuscript

Section 4: Stages of Publication

Courses are online and self-paced. No special software is required; internet access is necessary.

All courses are hosted in Taleo (VPN or campus connection is required)

In the Taleo Find a Training search box, type: Manuscript Writing Course

Once the course menu opens, click on the “Register for this Learning Plan”

You will receive an email from TaleoLearn with instructions on how to access your course.
